Scandal in the Family: What happens when a family secret changes your life for good? Or bad.

Danisha is middle-grade African-Canadian girl whose strict grandmother reveals (through her failing memory) an exotic past life. As Grams memory drifts, she thinks she is a jazz singer in a Detroit lounge in the 1940s, a time when mixed relationships were frowned on and gangsters ruled the music scene. When Danishas father tells her he thinks theres a scandal in his mothers life, Danisha sets out to solve the mystery. Parallels between her own life and her grandmothers come together; an unhealthy attraction to bad boys, an amazing singing and a stubbornness that prevents talent Danisha from telling the truth.
